HERSHEY FCU HIRES JOSEPH MARCHESE AS ACTING PRESIDENT/CEO

HUMMELSTOWN, PA -- The Hershey Federal Credit Union board of directors is proud to announce that it has hired Joseph E. Marchese as Acting President and CEO effective July 2, 2018. Current President/CEO Paul R. Wagner will retire February 28, 2019.

Marchese comes to HFCU with a strong financial services background, which includes mostly recently serving as the assistant vice president agricultural and commercial relationship manager at Ephrata National Bank. Before that, he was the commercial relationship manager at Member Business Financial Service in Lancaster.

With previous employment as a branch manager at Jonestown Bank & Trust Company and Fulton Bank, Marchese is familiar with the Central Pennsylvania area and its residents' financial needs.

"The Board of Directors is strategically working to attract members of the millennial generation," said HFCU Board Chairman Richard Miller. "We are pleased to not only find someone in this age group, but with the unique experience Joe brings to position HFCU for the future."

Marchese resides in Lititz with his wife Joyce and daughters Ivy and Sophie.

With offices in Hershey, Hummelstown and Annville, HFCU provides financial services to individuals, businesses and organizations in Dauphin and Lebanon counties. HFCU is a federally-chartered community credit union, with $67 million in assets and more than 6,600 members.
